Hörmann's TURBOLUX Wins 2024 Architectural Record Magazine Award

Hörmann North America recently announced that the SG 5040 TURBOLUX was selected as a Winner of the 2024 Record Products of the Year by Architectural Record Magazine. The SG 5040 TURBOLUX was officially introduced at the 2024 IDA 2024 Expo.

Architectural Record's long-running Best of Products competition evaluates the best building materials and furnishings introduced to the North American market within the last year. A panel of architects and designers judged the entries based on innovation, function, sustainability, and aesthetics. The publication will officially announce the winners in the December 2024 issue.
